

Palmetto Ridge High School Marching Pride 2011-2012 Sponsorship Form

The Palmetto Ridge High School Marching Pride is an exceptional family of almost 300 talented students who is excited to share their outstanding and continuing dedication to excellence during this 2011-2012 band season. The Marching Pride would like to extend a sponsorship invitation to businesses in our community who appreciate and share these characteristics.

The Marching Pride once again has a demanding and exhilarating schedule which includes, proudly supporting our school at weekly football games, participating in band competitions, parades, concerts, and special event performances. The culmination of this band season will be the honor of representing Collier County in the New Orleans St. Patrick's Day Parade.

Contributions from generous sponsors will help defray operating expenses of the band which include instruments, uniforms, transportation, and fees. The Marching Pride is a non-profit organization which allows for charitable donations. The band's 501 © (3) certificate number is 85-8013664868C-9.
